

VALLEY CROW

March 24, 2018 - PEMBERTON BARN - SEEDY SATURDAY

Eddy Hugill (VALLEY CROW, RAPIDO, KOTTMEIER) is a solo acoustic folk singer/songwriter from Pemberton, British Columbia. Since 2009, Eddy has been entertaining tourists from all corners of the earth as the resident musician for Canadian Wilderness Adventures. At 6000ft on beautiful Blackcomb mountain in a cozy wood ski cabin called the Crystal Hut, Eddy entertains guests two to three times per week playing a mix of original music inspired by the sea to sky corridor as well as unique renditions of popular favourites including Chris Isaac's "Wicked Game" to Passenger's "27". He is currently working on his second independently produced album under the new moniker VALLEY CROW including Crystal Hut favourites "Dusty Road" and "Two Acre Shaker".

Eddy has been accepted into the Berklee school of music Master of Arts in Global Entertainment and Music Business in Valencia, Spain 2018/2019 academic year and is currently booking shows for the spring and summer before departing to Spain to expand Valley Crow's international exposure and professional knowledge. Eddy love's to entertain and hopes to see you at Seedy Saturday this coming weekend.
